PLANNING AND PREPARATION -

I will initiate pre-mediation calls to all participants and counsel. Mediation statements are requested at least three days in advance of the mediation session, directed to Anna@NiemannMediation.com. If you would like me to consider additional materials, I request those to be provided at least two days in advance of our session to permit me sufficient time for review.

For remote mediations, I will send a Zoom invitation to all participants at least 48 hours in advance. Please convey best email addresses for all prospective attendees to me no later than two days prior to the scheduled mediation.

For further information about my background and skills I invite you to visit my website: NiemannMediation.com.

It will be an honor to serve as your neutral, and I look forward to doing so.
